

SS 11: Chapter 3 Study Sheet (Counterpoints)

Vocabulary:

socialism, communism, One Big Union, Citizen's Committee of One Thousand, Bloody Saturday, regionalism, Progressive Party, Mackenzie King, Arthur Meighen, minority government, Balfour Report, Statute of Westminster, British Commonwealth, branch plants, urbanization, Emily Murphy, Group of Seven, Emily Carr, potlatch, cut-off lands, aboriginal title, October 29, 1929

Important concepts to know:

- the general public mood of the 1920's
- reasons for labour unrest in the 1920's
- the causes, events, and outcome of the Winnipeg General Strike
- reasons for regional protests
- results of 1921 federal election
- the King-Byng crisis
- the effect of the 1931 Statute of Westminster upon Canada
- reasons for the booming economy of the 1920's
- problems associated with the increased reliance upon the U.S. as a trading partner
- the effect of American prohibition upon Canada's economy
- causes and effects of Canada's growing urbanization
- the Person's Case of 1929
- transportation improvements of the 1920's
- communication improvements of the 1920's
- inventions of the 1920's
- famous Canadian painters of the 1920's
- problems facing Canada's aboriginal people in the 1920's
- problems facing immigrants in the 1920's (African-Americans, Eastern Europeans, Asians)
- the 1929 stock market crash